Who Pays the Taxes.—Suppose some rich man has invested $50,000, it may be all he is worth, in these bonds, what will he say to the township or city tax collector when he comes to him to collect the taxes? It will be something like this: "Sir, are you ready to pay your taxes?" The rich man replies, "Sir, I have no taxes to pay."

"Why, sir, you are worth $50,000!" "Yes, sir, but it is where you cannot get at it."

"But, sir, consider that our State has an enormously heavy war tax to pay."

"I cannot help that; the United States has exempted me from all State taxation."

"But sir, our county and township have been put to great cost and expense in raising soldiers and paying bounties to save you and others from the draft."

"Well, I am much obliged to them; but I do not see how I am to help them."

"Well at least you will pay the school and highway tax."

"There is nothing about paying that in my bonds. Let these men see to that. I have nothing to do with that. I have nothing to do with schools and roads, except to use them, and I want good ones when I do use them."

And off goes the Treasurer to collect his funds of some laboring man who has no United States bonds.—Wyoming Democrat.

Work.—Hard work is before every true democrat. Let it be done and thoroughly done up by the day of election. On that day spare no horse flesh. See to it that the name of every democrat is registered, and when that is done, that every one is at the polls. While you yield to every man who is legally entitled, the right and privilege of voting, and voting as he chooses, demand that right for yourself, and if force is employed to prevent your exercise of this, the dearest right of freemen, then like freemen fight for it. "Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty." In the strong right arm of an American freeman is its defence.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS IN JACKSON COUNTY.—It is a significant fact that while the abolition speakers are unable to secure respectable audiences at their meetings through the county, Democratic meetings are largely attended.

During the past week, Hon. J. C. Wood has spoken in four townships in this county, and Hon. F. Livermore in two, and in every instance the houses were crowded to overflowing with attentive and enthusiastic listeners. This fact is encouraging, as it is the harbinger of a democratic triumph in this county in November.—Jackson Eagle.

AN ADMINISTRATION JOURNAL REBUKES THE SLANDERS OF GEN. McCLELLAN.—The Springfield Republican alludes to the revival by the administration papers of stale slanders regarding McClellan's loyalty and gallantry, and says: "We do not believe the political opponents of the democratic candidate will make a vote or strengthen the cause in any way, by the circulation of such slanders. He is not a rebel, either in principle or purpose."

There seems to be a slight inconsistency somewhere in the abolition war program. Lincoln and Stanton are assuring the people that the confederacy is on its last legs, while Grant and Sherman are calling vociferously for reinforcements of 500,000 men. There is something wrong somewhere.

DEMOCRATS, be on hand next Tuesday!

Letter From George H. Pendleton.

The following letter from Geo. H. Pendleton, the Democratic candidate for Vice President, is addressed to Hon. J. B. Haskin, of New York, Chairman of the Democratic Executive State Committee:

My Dear Sir: I have received your friendly letter. Malignant representations and falsehoods are so frequent in our political struggles that I have rarely undertaken to correct or refute them. I make no profession of a new faith, but only repeat my reiterated profession of an old one when I say that there is no one who cherishes a greater regard for the Union, who has higher sense of its inestimable benefits, who would more earnestly labor for its restoration by all means, which will effect that end, than myself. The Union is the guarantee of the peace policy, the power and the prosperity of this people, and no man would deprecate more heartily or oppose more persistently the establishment of another government over any portion of the territory within its limits. I am in favor of exacting no conditions and insisting upon no terms not prescribed in the Constitution, and I am opposed to any course of policy which will defeat the re-establishment of the government upon its old foundations, and in its territorial integrity.

I am very truly yours, etc.,
(Signed,) GEO. H. PENDLETON.

ABOLITIONISTS.—The day of vengeance will soon overtake these degraded disunionists. They are howling "traitors," "copperheads," &c., in order to clear themselves from the foul imputation which they know they honestly merit. Now they wish to make the people believe that the war should be continued until the last man is exterminated—not themselves. They are very patriotic as long as they can induce others to go and they be left to receive the emoluments of fat offices. They would by all means have democrats go to war in order to reduce their numbers so that they can control elections. But the day of retribution is about to usher in, for there are yet intelligent men enough who can appreciate democratic rule, and under it national prosperity. Four years of tyranny and misrule has not obliterated from their memory the blessings of our once peaceable and prosperous country, whose flag was hailed and respected by the whole world.—Hillsdale Democrat.

THE New Nation, which, after the withdrawal of Fremont, gave in its adhesion to Lincoln, still has sufficient independence to protest, in the following language, against Gov. Johnson's Tennessee villainy: "This election of Gov. Johnson's, in Tennessee, will be an idle performance. If electors are chosen they will not be recognized by the Senate. The vote of Tennessee, if it could be legally given, will not be needed to re-elect Lincoln. If he lacked for re-election the number of electoral votes to which Tennessee would be entitled, and sought to retain power through such pretended election, it is quite probable that the North would fall into war in resistance of such usurpation."

DRAFT.—We advise those who suppose there will be no more drafts not to be too sanguine—delude not yourselves. We tell you, re-elect Lincoln and we shall have a call for three or five hundred thousand men before the close of December. As much has already been intimated. Then it will be understood that no offer for peace will be thought of on either side. Then it will be clear we are to have four years more of war and glory. War takes men; and when the next draft is ordered men will go. It is doubtful if money enough can be raised on the un-mortgaged property in the North, to pay bounties such as have been paid.—St. Johns Herald.

A clergyman in Tennessee, on a Sabbath, recently, gave out the first line of a hymn:

"Lord, let a repenting rebel live," when a shoddy official sprang up, exclaiming, "Not unless he takes an oath to vote for Lincoln."

MASSACHUSETTS soldiers in the field will not be permitted to vote for President. The amendment to its constitution permitting soldiers to vote must be passed upon by the next Legislature and the people before it is adopted.

"The Union is the one condition of peace," says Gen. McClellan. "The abandonment of slavery is the condition of peace," says Mr. Lincoln. Which is the Unionist?
